PETITIONING THE COURT

To incorporate alleged violation with the violation previously reported to the June 25, 2020.

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
-------------------------	--------------------------------

2

Standard Condition #8: You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.

Supporting Evidence: Mr. Rojas is alleged to have interacted with Amanda L. Clark, a known felon, on July 24, 2020.

On June 16, 2020, supervised release conditions were reviewed and signed by Mr. Rojas, acknowledging his understanding of special condition number 8, as noted above.

On June 16, 2020, this officer informed Mr. Rojas he may not associate with Amanda Clark. Mr. Rojas was also reminded of the consequences if he chooses to associate with Ms. Clark.

Mr. Rojas stated he knows that associating with Amanda Clark causes issues for him and understood he was not allowed to associate with her.

On July 24, 2020, an officer with the Yakima Police Department (YPD), saw Amanda Clark and the offender in a vehicle together. YPD was aware that Mr. Rojas had a federal warrant, and they attempted to follow the vehicle. Amanda Clark drove the vehicle into an alley and parked the vehicle. Amanda Clark and the offender got out of the vehicle and fled on foot. YPD eventually located Mr. Rojas hiding in a garage and he was arrested without incident.

The U.S. Probation Office respectfully recommends the Court incorporate the alleged violation with the violation previously reported to the Court.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
